

Sailing Data from the Transcript:

1. Location:

- Sailing around New Zealand, from Great Barrier Island to Wellington.
- Passing by places like Great Mercury Island, Tonga Bridge Marina, East Cape, and Hicks Bay.
- Arrival and docking at Compass Cafe at Sea View Marina in Wellington.

2. Sailing Conditions:

- Sailing in challenging conditions in New Zealand, with rough seas and high winds.
- Difficult passage planning due to unpredictable weather patterns.
- Encounter with treacherous seas around East Cape and Cook Strait.

3. Problems & Fixes:

- Previous issues with emergency haul out and deck problems, but now ready to continue circumnavigation.
- Weather challenges with conflicting weather models and tight windows for sailing.
- Crew adapting to cold weather conditions.

4. Anchorages & Marinas:

- Stopping at various anchorages like Great Mercury Island and Hicks Bay.
- Docking at Tauranga Bridge Marina and Sea View Marina in Wellington.

5. Routes:

- Sailing down the east coast of the North Island from Great Barrier Island to Wellington.
- Decision to head towards Cook Strait for the passage down to Christchurch.
- Importance of strategic passage planning due to limited shelter options.

6. Safety Measures:

- Navigating through challenging conditions safely.
- Utilizing crew experience for night watches and sailing in cold conditions.
- Grateful for smooth passages and finding humor in challenging situations.

7. Significant Sites:

- Passing by White Island/Fakar (active volcano) with tragic history of eruption.
- Exploring East Cape, the most eastern part of New Zealand.
- Enjoying the hospitality and warmth of locals in various locations.

8. Encounters & Experiences:

- Memorable experiences like fishing at anchorages, encountering dolphins, and interacting with locals.
- Hosting Patreon meetups and saying goodbye to crew members.
- Excitement for upcoming events like the Sale GP in Christchurch.

9. Emotions & Reflections:

- Reflecting on the significance of White Island tragedy and feeling the energy of the place.
- Emotional farewells to crew members and gratitude for the sailing experience.
- Feeling overwhelmed by the support and generosity of patrons and locals.

10. Future Plans:

- Plans to head to Sale GP in Christchurch and excitement for upcoming sailing adventures.
- Reflecting on the positive attitude and camaraderie within the crew.

This data highlights the journey, challenges, experiences, and emotions encountered during the sailing trip around New Zealand, providing insights into the diverse aspects of sailing in this region.